I can't refrain from sending you the enclosed clipping & ^{N.Y. Times, even date} Many a quart of water has flooded down the Potomac since you played the part depicted by the central figure. We had many a chuckle over And just why should I have remembered even that you took the part of Bottom, I can still hear you moaning for a "fottle of hay. But what gives me the biggest kick was to remember Pete Ramsay playing Wall and Mr. Bartlett Thisie. Mr. Bartlett could not have made a better selection of Wall from the entire class. The entire production stands out in my memory as a masterpiece of amateur effort.
I don't if you are aware that Pete Ramsay died as he was about to speak at his Algate Reunion last year.

I am sorry you were not able to come to the Reunion last year.
I'm certainly wont to surprised that have been keeping close tabs on you and nothing your progress. Have been thrilled to see the entire family take over but am any thing but happy at your brothers health. He has been troubling for him.

to see the entire family take over at your brothers health. We have been pulling for him.
I hope I'm not boring you when I remind you that I clashed you one winters day from the old North St School to your house but you gained a stule on me at every step

Have often wondered why your middle name is Welsh.
When I discovered last summer I was in the memorial chapel at what was the Seminary — now owned by the local Seventh Day Adventists — and noticed the beautiful mural given in memory of Professor Welsh and by chance discovered his monument at Fort Hill.
I remember your father's service at the Seminary and I suspect a connection.

What with the family connection of Henderson, Lansing and now Welsh — what is the relationship?

Cordially
